TERRY AND THE SUPREME COURT.

The move on the part of Judge Terry of Stockton to oust the Supreme Judges of the Supreme Court of California ought to entitle him to the thanks of the people of California. But of course it does not. The Parsonian newspapers are after Terry's scalp and charge him as follows:

Killing Broderick in a duel. Animated by a grievance. Wants to get over in Missouri. How in the name of all common sense does any logical newspaper really consider that these charges against Terry—whether true or false, — really answer any of Terry's charges against the Court.

It is the fashion to laud a man for ever who has killed another in a duel, no matter how generous and warm hearted a man he may be while oily hypocrites and knaves go scot free. Now Terry's integrity as a citizen has never been questioned where he is known. Judge Terry is not on trial; it is Morrison and Sharpstone of the Supreme Court of California. Let us hear whether or not they are incompetent mentally and incompetent physically to perform the functions of office. If the charge is true let them step down and out.

The fact that these frauds are trying to shift the fight on Terry simply shows that the papers can make none but this lame and cheap defence. Suppose the devil signs the charges and they are proven by competent testimony? Truth is truth whether it comes out of heaven or is belched up from the depths of hell.

THE CIGARMACKERS.

Rival Organizations Making a Bitter Fight for the Mastery.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The fight of the cigarmackers goes on. There are now nearly 2,000 employees out of work through the difficulties between the Knights of Labor and the Cigarmakers' Progressive Union. A Committee of Knights continued their labors yesterday in visiting the Knights of Labor shops and informing the men that they must either give up the Progressive Union or the work in which they were engaged, for only members in good standing will be permitted to work in Knights of Labor shops. The firms visited yesterday were Kaufman Bros and Bondy, Brown & Earl. S. Jacoby & Co., Allenberg Bros. and Frank McCoy & Co. Oscar Hammerstein, President of the American Cigar Manufacturers' Association, said there were twenty-one firms in his Association, that this was not their fight and they did not propose to take any hand in it. He has called a meeting of the Association to prepare for the emergency. The manufacturers regarded the International as the best Union, but thought two unions absolutely necessary for the protection of the manufacturers. "If," said Mr. Hammerstein, "the 16,000 cigarmackers in the city were in the International Union the prices would go up from $1 to $3 a thousand."

CALLING OUT RESERVES. The Knights of Labor have found it necessary to call out reserves in their open fight against the Progressive Union and it threatens to boycott. The Master Workman of all the local assemblies within its jurisdiction were summoned together Tuesday evening, and it is stated instructions were handed each of them with the pledge of great secrecy exacted from all present. Following is a copy of the written decree:

You are hereby directed to notify all the member to attend a mass meeting of the members to be held at Union Square Saturday evening, July 31st, at 8 o'clock. Any local assembly failing to obey this red-letter call is liable to expulsion.

It is reported that the Knights did not intend to apply for a permit until late this evening, so that the public of New York would be taken by surprise. The threat boycott in its various phases, the pardon of the Theiss boycotters and the cigarmackers' fight will be the source of much discussion and many strong resolutions.
